

Choir and School Singing

We kicked off the New Year with the choir auditions and it was a tough decision as to who was going to make it into the 2011-2012 Choir; there were lots of children to choose from. When the final decision was made we started to learn a range of exciting songs by the Beatles and Take That to name a couple.

This term we have lots to do! With many people excited to hear our choir we will be visiting different venues in Nottingham to perform to a range of people. We have also been invited to record a CD to be sent off with the hope that we will be entered into a choir competition taking place at the Barbican in London. So many performances and songs coming up, and after only a few weeks, a fantastic sounding choir!

The children sang beautifully at the harvest festival and continue to sing every Tuesday afternoon learning a range of songs from old classics to singing in a round, nursery rhymes and contemporary music to name a few of the choices. The children at Milford always sing with such gumption and enthusiasm and as the build up to Christmas begins there will be more and more singing taking place.
